The benefits of this seminar to your internal collaboration projects

This seminar will develop the collaborative leadership skills of your senior managers.

For your organisation: It gives confidence to an organisation to know that their managers are skilled at building collaborative advantage within their organisation, to gain efficiencies and improve service delivery.

For your departments and agencies: Having skilled collaborative transformation leaders, to work across departmental boundaries, will help accelerate the scale and pace of the projects. It will ensure that the collaboration is set on strong foundations from the outset. It will avoid the classic pitfalls experienced in so many internal collaborations.

For individuals: The SSA collaborative leadership and collaborative transformation seminars enable your senior managers to apply over 200 tried and tested tools, templates and techniques in any collaborative setting and across many sectors (local and central government, fire, police, PCC, health & social care, housing and third sector). This gives them the confidence to be successful in their role, no matter who the partners are.

Harnessing Collaborative Leadership

Within Your Organisation

to reduce inefficiency and foster transformation

Overview

This one-day seminar equips you with the skills and knowledge to harness collaborative leadership to reduce inefficiency and foster collaborative transformation between departments within your organisation:

- It will help you identify the strategic contexts for collaboration between departments, silos and management that can reduce duplication of effort and budgets.
- It will increase the repertoire of collaborative options available to you, and help you leverage internal stakeholder interest and appetite, for transformation through in-house collaboration.
- Crucially it will help you to develop and nurture a culture of cost-cutting, collaborative working within your organisation.

How will this session help you reduce inefficiency?

1. Effective collaborative leadership within your organisation will remove inefficiency and generate improvement gains, not available if departments, or services, continued to work in silos.
2. When your organisation is successful at internal collaboration, external partnership working will be more readily achieved. You will have what the academics call 'collaborative advantage'.
3. You will gain a set of tools, templates and techniques for leading confidently both internally, and beyond your departmental silo or service boundaries to develop new, more effective and lower-cost services.

WHAT DO THE ONLINE TOOLS LOOK LIKE AND HOW ARE THEY STRUCTURED?

Each tool is set out in its own six-page layout, and designed so that what you read in the morning, you can be applying that afternoon.

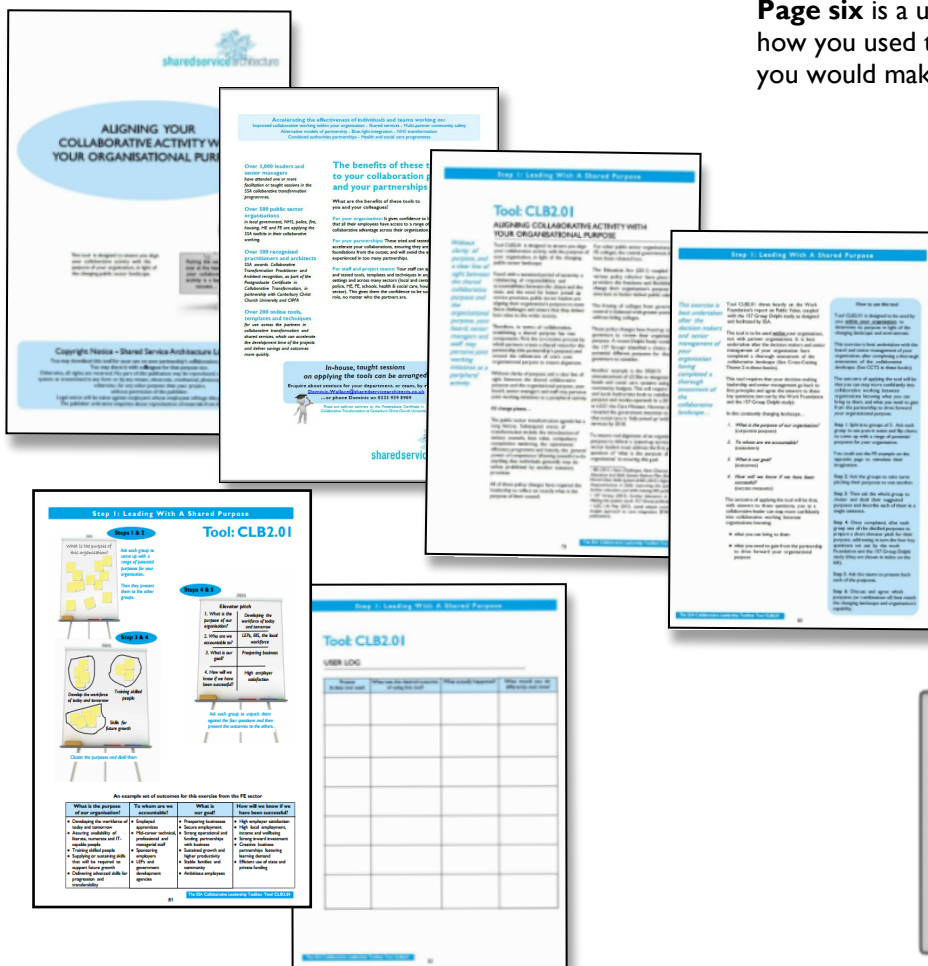

Each tool is set out in its own six-page layout, and designed so that what you read in the morning, you can be applying that afternoon.

The tools provide support for each of the six stages of the Collaborative Transformation Journey Map from Collaborative Leadership through to Transform and Improve.

Pages one to four explain the the tool, the situations you might consider deploying it in and the background, academic and practitioner underpinning. Page four also contains a step-by-step guide, in the blue column, to applying the template, tool or technique.

Page five provides an example layout of the tool so you can develop and adapt it for your specific purpose.

Page six is a user log to record when and how you used the tool and any adaptations you would make when using the tool again.

Over 200 downloadable tools, templates and techniques to accelerate collaborative working across your organisation and partnerships

They will also inspire your project teams to create their own tailored tools, templates and techniques for their projects.

Equipped with these tools, this is their opportunity to be enterprising and innovative and accelerate the success of your collaborative projects they are working on.
