How would you rate the tutors?

Overall, how would you rate the seminar?

Feedback from delegates that will enable SSA to improve the quality of future seminars

What positive messages will you take away from today's seminar?

1. Take time to engage and listen to ideas and options
2. Change is manageable - not just inevitable
3. Collaboration equals community support and buy-in
4. The language to use in community planning
5. That other services across the organisation understand the concept
6. Knowledge of tools that will help solve a number of problems in different ways
7. Excellent delivery in a way everyone can understand
8. New ideas
9. Collaboration works
10. There are new and creative solutions ahead of us!
11. Building relationships is key
12. A consistent approach to problem solving is incredibly helpful
13. A lot can be done, be patient and go do it!
14. Very thought-provoking and stimulating
15. That collaboration, if harnessed and embraced is the way forward to delivery and services to communities
16. How collaboration can lead to sustainable solutions
17. The community can be an asset

What, if anything, do you think would have improved the seminar overall?

1. Provide toolkit in advance of the seminar (2)
2. Bit shorter and less information
3. More explicit about 'right answer' is not necessarily out there
4. Last 30 minutes proved hard going so interaction throughout would benefit
5. More interactive sessions with colleagues as there was a lot of presentation/talking as an entire group

When delegates were asked what they individually would be most interested in attending as a next step:

- 5 said The Postgraduate Certificate in Collaborative Leadership
- 4 said The Collaborative Leadership Between Organisations
- 9 said The Collaborative Leadership Within Your Organisation

Understanding the purpose and nature of this seminar

The seminar was developed from almost two years of academic research, project reviews and practitioner interviews by Shared Service Architecture Ltd. Its purpose is to enhance and equip the skills and knowledge required by public sector managers to lead on collaborative projects.

This is one of three seminars in Collaborative Leadership, that are part of the University of Derby Corporate Postgraduate Certificate in Collaborative Leadership.

The style of the seminar was a mix of teaching input, discussion and action learning.

The seminar was held at Beech Hurst, Andover on 10th November 2015.

The seminar timing was from 10.00 to 15.30.
