1. Appetite for change (2)
2. Collaborative is the way forward
3. Positive future
4. There is hope!
5. Clearer idea but raises lots of challenges to be overcome
6. It's the only game in town so let's make it work
7. Hope that groundwork (vision, values etc) will be done before any structural change
8. Go back & speak with partners from my practice
9. Need to collaborate
10. Appetite seems to be there for doing this work
11. That appetite remains for positive collaboration & change
12. That it may be possible
13. Very open discussions, but no clearer in understanding CCGs vision
14. Not much other than that collaborative working has to be done
15. Colleagues are willing to engage
16. I feel more positive about the changes

Understanding the purpose and nature of this seminar

The seminar was developed from almost two years of academic research, project reviews and practitioner interviews by Shared Service Architecture Ltd. Its purpose is to enhance and equip the skills and knowledge required by General Practitioners to lead on collaborative projects.

This is a GP Provider Development Workshop tailored to specific needs of GP practices.

The style of the seminar was a mix of teaching input, discussion and action learning.

The seminar was held at Park Inn, Nottingham on 29th January 2015.

The seminar timing was from 10.00 to 15.30.
